

RAYMOND M. KETHLEDGE

The Honorable Raymond M. Kethledge was appointed to the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit on July 8, 2008. He received his B.A. in History from the University of Michigan in 1989, and his J.D. from the University of Michigan Law School in 1993. He clerked for the Honorable Ralph B. Guy, Jr., of the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit and Justice Anthony Kennedy of the United States Supreme Court. Judge Kethledge also worked in the United States Senate and later, with two partners, founded a boutique litigation firm, now known as Bush, Seyferth & Paige PLLC, in Troy, Michigan. His practice there included a mix of trial-court, appellate, and class-action litigation.
